

STAMP Workshop for Trainers – How to organise a Youth Event Management Programme – YEMP Tallinn, Estonia / 19 – 25/7/2018

Do you want to learn how to organise a Youth Event Management Programme (YEMP), a “win-win” model training for young managers? Would you like to understand what YEMP is, how it works and why it can be an interesting offer both for young managers and for festival organisers?

YEMP is a two-week training course including lectures and training on the job. After a selection process, 25 young people from different countries will be invited to participate in the programme. The young YEMPers, fully included in the organising team, will be testing themselves with roles of responsibility in the various offices of the festival, under the guidance of two coaches, one Estonian, and one international.

The STAMP Workshop for trainers is a training offer for festival organisers and music organisations from Central, East and South-Eastern Europe. In this workshop YEMP will be presented as exemplary training course for young managers which can be adapted to different realities and contexts.

Plan of the training course:

- Thursday, 19th July 2018: arrival in Tallinn
- Friday, 20th July: Introduction to YEMP as Training Model. the draft Guidelines and Toolbox
- Saturday/Sunday, 21st - 22nd July: Observation of the YEMP training weekend with lectures and workshops on management skills, with some workshops doubled / tested
- Monday, 23rd July: Shadowing the YEMPers starting the “training on the job”
- Tuesday, 24th July: How can YEMP be adapted to other circumstances?
(other music sectors, smaller events, lower budgets, national events etc.)
Evaluation, Knowledge Transfer, Feedback,
- Wednesday, 25th July 2018: Departure

(Those interested can stay longer and experience the EUROPA CANTAT Festival or its beginning, covering their own costs)

Working Language: English
